Tea Leaf Reading (and afternoon tea)

Sun. May 1, 2022 1pm 209 South Middlebush Rd, Somerset

Please join us for a special and interesting afternoon. You will be served a full traditional afternoon tea with light fare, and you will have the opportunity to have your tea leaves read by Dawn Strouse.

Tea Leaf Readings are an ancient method of divination originating with Buddhist Monks. They sought enlightenment through meditation with the images in their tea cup. As tea began to spread from Asia into Europe, tea leaf readings were carried by traveling caravans and merchants and often adopted by Gypsies who have been famous for fortune telling. Merchants continued to bring tea farther into Western Europe and eventually up to the British Isles. Having your tea leaves read became very popular during Victorian times. After dining, the gentlemen would retire to the study or game room for brandy and cigars and the ladies would retire to the parlor for tea. Tea Leaf Reading became a fun parlor game more than true divination.

Dawn Strouse has been offering readings for over ten years. Her readings are intuitive, and are a vehicle for her psychic abilities. In addition to private readings, she has participated in many holistic and psychic expos in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. These readings utilize loose tea and a traditional cup and saucer.

This event will be held on Sunday, May 1, 2022 from 1-5pm at the historic Hageman House, 209 South Middlebush Road, Franklin Township, NJ. The fee for attending is $40 per person.
